Personal

Born on August 10, 1979.

2 children, 13 and 10 y.o.

Russian Federation Citizen.

Education and Degrees

2018: Academic rank of Professor of the Russian Academy of Sciences

2017: Habilitation in Mathematics and Physics (Probability Theory and Mathematical Statistics), St. Petersburg Department of Steklov Mathematical Institute

2005: Ph.D. in Mathematics and Physics (Probability Theory and Mathematical Statistics), St. Petersburg Department of Steklov Mathematical Institute

2001: Specialist Degree in Mathematics, St. Petersburg State University

Employment

St.Petersburg Department of Steklov Mathematical Institute, 2004–present (current position: deputy director for science, head of the laboratory of statistical methods)

Honors and Awards

2014: Prize of the Government of St. Petersburg for outstanding scientific achievements in the field of science and technology

1995: International Mathematical Olympiad, Gold Medal
