

We suggest a method for construction of optimal control for the simplest delay differential equation with distributed delays. The method is based on summation procedure for non-harmonic Fourier series. This is a joint work with P.Barkhaev.